

AMENDMENTS TO THE SPECIFICATION

Paragraph numbering and headings have been added to the filed specification, which serves as the basis from which all amendments are made. No new matter is added in doing this.

The headings have been inserted as follows:

- “Background of the Art” between [0001] and [0002];
- “Summary of the Invention” between [0005] and [0006];
- “Brief Description of the Drawings” between [0019] and [0020]; and
- “Detailed Description of a Preferred Embodiment” between [0022] and [0023].

A substitute specification is provided herewith with the abstract being the final page of the substitute specification.
